

Alum Spotlight: Marie Milie Jones, L'87

Marie Milie Jones is a founding partner of JonesPassodelis, PLLC, formed in 2011, focusing her practice on helping businesses and public entities in the employment and civil rights fields, counseling clients in risk management principles and handling litigation in federal and state court. She made history in Pittsburgh when, in 1998, she became the youngest female managing attorney of a major law firm. Marie served as Chairman of the Duquesne University Board of Directors from 2009-2017, the first female to hold this position, and continues as an Emeritus Director today. She currently serves as an Independent Director of Federated Hermes, Inc., on the Board of Regents for St. Vincent's Seminary, and with numerous professional and charitable enterprises. She also currently serves her alma mater on the School of Law Advisory Board. On Jan. 22, Marie spoke to our Student Leadership Fellows about her leadership journey.
